

GENERAL

Jerusalem Et Sion Filiae

Attrib. St. Victor (1112 - 1146)

Joseph Meunier d'Haudimont (1751 - 1803)

1) Grand Orgue

2) Chri-stus e - nim nor - ma ju - sti - ti - ae, ma - trem no - stram de - spon - sat ho - di - e, quam de - la - cu tra - xit mi - se - ri - ae
E - ccle - si - am.

3) Grand Orgue

4) For - ma - re - tur ut sic E - ccle - si - a, fi - gu - ra - tur in pri - ma fe - mi - na, quae de co - stis A - dae est e - di - ta ma - ter E - va.

5) Grand Orgue

6) Ju - stis in - de sol - vun - tur prae - mi - a, la - psis au - tem do - na - tur ve - ni - a,
et san - cto - rum au - gen - tur gau - di - a an - ge - lo - rum

GENERAL

7) Grand Orgue

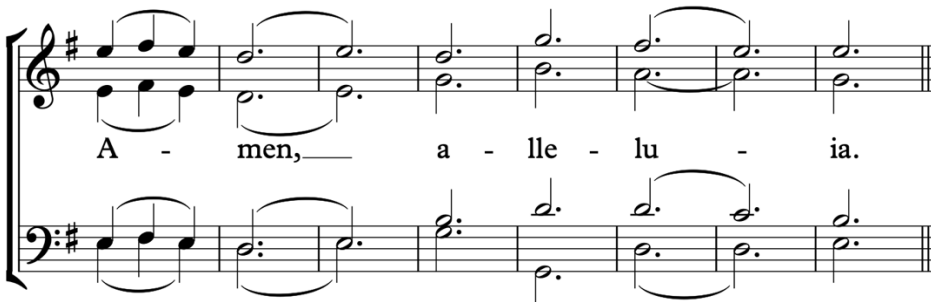

8) Chri - stus jun gens nos su - is nup - ti - is, re - cre - a - tos ve - ris de - li - ci - is, in - ter - re - sse fa - ci - at gau - di - is e - le - cto - rum.

A - men, a - lle - lu - ia.

Translation: Ye daughters of Sion and Jerusalem, the assembly of all the court of faith, shall not cease to proclaim the song of joy, alleluia. For Christ is marrying today, according to the rule of justice, our mother, the Church, whom he pulled out of the pit of misery. So, the Church was shaped that she was seen in equal glory to Adam's rib, shaped into a woman, mother Eve. From thence the prizes are given to the just, the joy of the Angels is renewed, the grace of charity makes this [feast] far too large. Christ, who at his wedding creates as anew with the true treasures may grant us to belong to the fellows of the elect.